

The Church of Light, Box 1525, Los Angeles, 53, Calif.

Serial No. 151.
Branch Letter--A.

Course XIV.

Branch of Science--Occultism Applied to Daily Life.

Part I. Finding One's Cosmic Work.

Examination Questions.

1. What evidence is there that man has a faculty which makes precognition possible?
2. What special method of viewing life is the logical outcome of occult investigation?
3. In what way is the welfare of the individual bound up with the welfare of the organism to which it belongs?
4. What is the general policy followed by the cosmic organization?
5. What plan has been found the most effective for an organization by our industrial captains?
6. Illustrate what is meant by division of labor.
7. Illustrate how specialization has revolutionized modern industrial methods.
8. What indicates the soundness of nature's plan that progress is accomplished through specialization of parts and co-operative division of labor between those specialized parts?
9. Why is it valuable for man to know the policies under which the universe is run?
10. Illustrate how persons who are failures in one line often are great successes in other lines.
11. ~~What are the advantages to cosmic progress when a person follows a proper vocation?~~
12. To what extent have the steps in human progress been due to efforts outside of vocational hours?
13. Is it within the power of all to in some measure make the world a better place in which to live?
14. Is providing people the necessities and facilities of life constructive work, cosmically considered?
15. What is the first thing to be considered in selecting a vocation?
16. Does success always follow the exercise of ability?
17. Indicate how natural talents may be used in diverse ways in different environments.
18. In selecting a vocation, how much importance should be attributed to the environmental association of the occupation?
19. What two factors are of greatest importance in selecting a vocation?
20. What one factor is of greatest importance in selecting one's cosmic work?
21. How early in life should the cosmic work be selected?
22. What has harmony to do with the completely constructive life?
23. How should self-dissatisfaction be viewed?
24. Do people usually have a just estimate of what they should accomplish?
25. What is the source of most feelings of irritation, and how should these feelings be considered?